ANNEXURE 'A'

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE AND DAILY ALLOWANCE OF NON-OFFICIAL MEMBERS OF THE HIMACHAL PRADESH GRIEVANCES COMMITTEE

(1) TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE

(i) Journey by rail:

(a) Member of Parliament.—Members of Parliament will utilise the free first class Railway Pass issued to them as members of Parliament in respect of all rail journeys undertaken by them on business of committee. They will not travel by air-conditioned accommodation at Government expenses. If a member of Parliament travels by air-conditioned coach, he will pay the difference between the fares for the air-conditioned and first class accommodation from his own pocket. They will be paid incidental charges at the rate of 8 paise per kilometer for each single journey performed by rail.

(b) Non-official members other than Members of Parliament.—They will be treated at par with Government servants of the first grade, and will be entitled to a single fare of the class of the accommodation actually used, but not exceeding the fare to which the Government servants of the first grade are normally entitled, i.e. accommodation of the highest class, by whatever name it may be called, provided on the railway by which the journey is performed excluding air-conditioned, plus an allowance for incidental expenses at the rate of 35 paise per every 10 kilometre or part thereof, if the journey exceeds 5 kilometres.

(ii) Journey by road.—In respect of journey by road between places not connected by rail a member will be entitled to road mileage admissible to an officer of the first grade under the rules and at the rates as applicable to the employees of the Himachal Pradesh Government.

(1) When a journey is performed by taking a single seat in a public conveyance, he will be entitled to actual fare paid for a seat in a public conveyance plus incidentals admissible as for journey by rail or the lower rate of road mileage limited to rail mileage, whichever is less.

(2) When the journey is performed otherwise the higher rate of road mileage, but limited to rail mileage will apply.

Note.—Non-official members, who are also members of the Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to mileage at the same rate and on the same conditions as are applicable to them as member of Vidhan Sabha to attend the Session.

(2) DAILY ALLOWANCE

(i) The non-official members other than members of Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the highest rate admissible to a Government servant of the first grade for the respective locality.

(ii) The members of Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to a daily allowance for each day of meeting at the same rate and on the same conditions as are applicable to them as member Vidhan Sabha to attend the Session.

(3) In addition to the daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to full daily allowance for the day preceding and/or the day following the meeting if—

(i) he arrives in the forenoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting or on an earlier day; and/or

(ii) he departs at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day following the day of the meeting or on a later day. But he will be entitled to only half daily allowance for the day preceding and/or for the day following the meeting if—

(a) he arrives at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting; and/or

(b) he departs in the forenoon of the day following the day of the meeting.

(4) Daily allowance will be subject to the usual conditions laid down in Supplementary Rule 73, as amended from time to time.

(5) CONVEYANCE ALLOWANCE

A non-official member, resident at a place where the meeting of the committee is held will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated above, but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hire, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10 per day. Before the claim is actually paid, the Controlling Officer should verify the claim and satisfy himself, after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed. In cases he is not satisfied with the details, he may, at his discretion, limit the conveyance allowance to road mileage.

If such a member uses his own car, he will be granted mileage allowance at the rate admissible to officials of the first grade subject to a maximum of Rs. 10 per day.

(6) The travelling and daily allowance will be admissible to a member on production of a certificate by him to the effect that he has not drawn any travelling or daily allowance for the same journey and halts from any other Government source.

(7) The non-official members will be eligible for travelling allowance for the journey actually performed in connection with the meetings of the committee from and to the place of their permanent residence to be named in advance. If any member performs a journey from a place other than the place of his permanent residence to attend a meeting of the committee or returns to a place other than the place of his permanent residence, after the termination of the meeting, travelling allowance shall be worked out on the basis of the distance actually travelled or the distance between the place of permanent residence and the venue of the meeting, whichever is less.

(8) The non-official members who are members of Vidhan Sabha will not be entitled to daily allowance in connection with his assignment, than the Vidhan Sabha or the Vidhan Sabha Committee on which the member is serving is in Session, as they will be drawing their daily allowance under the SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES OF MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY (HIMACHAL PRADESH) ACT, 1963, from the Vidhan Sabha. However, if they certify that they were prevented from attending the Session of the House or the Vidhan Sabha Committee and did not draw any daily allowance from the Vidhan Sabha. They would be entitled to daily allowance at the rate as prescribed.

(9) In the case of over-payment made on account of T.A. to non-official member, the same will be recoverable under the provision of the relevant rules.

(10) The members of the Parliament and Vidhan Sabha members will also not draw T.A. and D.A. including conveyance allowance which will disqualify them from the Parliament and the Vidhan Sabha.

6. This notification supersedes Grievances Committee or any other Committee constituted on the subject at district level, if any.

ANNEXURE 'A'

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE AND DEARNESS ALLOWANCE OF NON-OFFICIAL MEMBERS OF THE HIMACHAL PRADESH GRIEVANCES COMMITTEE

(1) TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE

(i) Journey by rail.—(a) Member of Parliament.—Members of Parliament will utilise the free first class Railway Pass issued to them as members of Parliament in respect of all rail journeys undertaken by them on business of committee. They will not travel by air-conditioned accommodation at Government expenses. If a member of Parliament travels by air-conditioned coach, he will pay the difference between the fares for the air-conditioned and first class accommodation from his own pocket. They will be paid incidental charges at the rate of 8 paise per kilometer for each single journey performed by rail.

(b) Non-official members other than members of Parliament.—They will be treated at par with Government servants of the first grade, and will be entitled to single fare of the class of the accommodation actually used, but not exceeding the fare to which the Government servants of the first grade are normally entitled, i.e., accommodation of the highest class, by whatever name it may be called, provided on the railway by which the journey is performed excluding air-conditioned, plus an allowance for incidental expenses at the rate of 35 paise per every 10 kilometre or part thereof, if the journey exceeds 5 kilometres.

(ii) Journey by road.—In respect of journey by road between places not connected by rail a member will be entitled to road mileage admissible to an officer of the first grade under the rules and at the rates as applicable to the employees of the Himachal Pradesh Government.

In a case where journey between two places connected by rail is performed by road, rail being the ordinary mode of travelling, the road mileage will be regulated as under:—

- (1) When the journey is performed by taking a single seat in a public conveyance, he will be entitled to actual fare paid for a seat in a public conveyance plus incidentals admissible as for journey by rail or the lower rate of road mileage limited to rail mileage, whichever is less.
- (2) When the journey is performed otherwise the higher rate of road mileage, but limited to rail mileage will apply.

Note.—Non-official members, who are also members of the Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to mileage at the same rate and on the same conditions as are applicable to them as Member of Vidhan Sabha to attend the session.

DAILY ALLOWANCE

(2) (i) The non-official member other than members of Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the highest rate admissible to a Government servant of the first grade of the respective locality.

(ii) The members of Vidhan Sabha will be entitled to a daily allowance for each day of meeting at the same rate and on the same condition as are applicable to them as Member of Vidhan Sabha to attend the Session.

(3) In addition to the daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to full daily allowance for the day preceding and/or the day following the meeting if—

- (i) he arrives in the forenoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting or on an earlier day; and/or
- (ii) he departs at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day following the day of the meeting or on a later day. But he will be entitled to only half daily allowance for the day preceding and/or for the day following the meeting if—
 - (a) he arrives at 12 noon or in the afternoon of the day preceding the day of the meeting; and/or
 - (b) he departs in the forenoon of the day following the day of the meeting.

(4) Daily allowance will be subject to the usual conditions laid down in Supplementary Rule 73, as amended from time to time.

CONVEYANCE ALLOWANCE

(5) A non-official member, resident at a place where the meeting of the Committee is held will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated above, but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hire, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10 per day. Before the claim is actually paid, the Controlling Officer should verify the claim and satisfy himself, after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary, that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed. In case he is not satisfied with the details, he may, at his discretion, limit the conveyance allowance to road mileage.

If such a member uses his own car, he will be granted mileage allowance at the rate admissible to officials of the first grade subject to a maximum of Rs. 10. per day.

(6) The travelling and daily allowance will be admissible to a member on production of certificate by him to the effect that he has not drawn any travelling or daily allowance for the same journey and halts from any other Government source.

(7) The non-official members will be eligible for travelling allowance for the journey actually performed in connection with the meetings of the committee from and to the place of their permanent residence to be named in advance. If any member performs a journey from a place other than the place of his permanent residence to attend a meeting of the committee or returns to a place other than the place of his permanent residence, after the termination of the meeting, travelling allowance shall be worked out on the basis of the distance actually travelled or the distance between the place of permanent residence and the venue of the meeting, whichever is less.

(8) The non-official members who are members of Vidhan Sabha will not be entitled to daily allowance in connection with his assignment, than the Vidhan Sabha or the Vidhan Sabha Committee on which the member is serving is in Session, as they will be drawing their daily allowance under the SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES OF MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY (HIMACHAL PRADESH) ACT, 1963, from the Vidhan Sabha. However, if they certify that they were prevented from attending the Session of the House or the Vidhan Sabha Committee and did not draw any daily allowance from the Vidhan Sabha. They would be entitled to daily allowance at the rate as prescribed.

(9) In the case of over-payment made on account of T.A. to non-official members the same will be recoverable under the provision of the relevant rules.

(10) The members of the Parliament and Vidhan Sabha members will also not draw T.A. and D.A. including conveyance allowance which will disqualify them from the Parliament and the Vidhan Sabha.

By order,
K. N. CHANNA,
Chief Secretary.

No. 5-3-71-CD (PNT).—Whereas Shri Ghungru Ram, Sarpanch, Gram Panchayat, Gopalpur, District Kulu was involved in a case under section 107/150 CPC (State through Shri Ghungru Ram, Sarpanch Versus Shri Jhalli s/o Shri Niharsi, r/o village Jurala, Phatti Heri, Kothi Gopalpur, District Kulu etc., etc.);

And whereas the Executive Magistrate Class I, Kulu in his judgment in this case announced on the 29th March, 1968 observed that Shri Ghungru Ram is not a fit person to hold the responsible position of a Sarpanch;

And whereas the above fact was brought to the notice of Shri Ghungru Ram vide this department order of even number, dated the 1st June, 1971, asking him to show cause as to why he should not be removed from the office of Sarpanch in accordance with the provisions of section 54 (2) (d) of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1968;

Now, therefore, after considering the reply, dated the 26th June, 1971, of the said Shri Ghungru Ram, the Government, in terms of the provisions of section 54 (2) (d) of the Act, ibid, hereby orders the removal of Shri Ghungru Ram from the office of Sarpanch, Gram Panchayat, Gopalpur (Kulu) with immediate effect, thereby dispensing with the requirement of section 54 (1) of the Act, ibid the court having already tried the case.

Simla-2, the 15th September, 1971

No. 5-87/71-CD (PNT).—Whereas Shri Faquir Chand

while functioning as Sarpanch, Gram Panchayat, Anur, Tehsil Dehra, District Kangra during the month of April, 1971, was involved in a police case u/s 341, 342/354, 376/34 and was arrested in P.S. Haripur and later released on bail by the Court of Law;

And whereas it has therefore been observed that the said Shri Faquir Chand has not exhibited a good conduct;

Now, therefore, the Government in terms of the provisions of section 54 of the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1968, hereby order suspension of Shri Faquir Chand, from the office of the Sarpanch with immediate effect. He will hand over the charge to the acting Sarpanch to be elected by the Panchayat.

HOME DEPARTMENT NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 23rd August, 1971

No. 1-371-Home.—The Maintenance of Internal Security Act, 1971 (No. 26 of 1971) enacted by the Parliament and published in the Gazette of India Extraordinary Part II, Section 1 on the 2nd July, 1971 is hereby republished in the Himachal Pradesh Rajpatra for general information.

B. B. TANDON,
Joint Secretary.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 2nd July, 1971/Asadha 11, 1893 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 2nd July, 1971, and is hereby published for general information:—

THE MAINTENANCE OF INTERNAL SECURITY ACT, 1971

No. 26 of 1971

[2nd July, 1971]

An Act to provide for detention in certain cases for the purpose of maintenance of internal security and matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called the Maintenance of Internal Security Act, 1971.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "appropriate Government" means, as respects a detention order made by the Central Government or a person detained under such order, the Central Government and as respects a detention order made by a State Government or by an officer subordinate to a State Government or as respects a person detained under such order, the State Government;

(b) "detention order" means an order made under section 3;

(c) "foreigner" has the same meaning as in the Foreigners Act, 1946 (31 of 1946);

(d) "State Government", in relation to a Union territory, means the administrator thereof.

3. Power to make orders detaining certain persons.—

(1) The Central Government or the State Government may,—

(a) if satisfied with respect to any person (including a foreigner) that with a view to preventing him from acting in any manner pre-judicial to—

(i) the defence of India, the relations of India with foreign powers, or the security of India, or

(ii) the security of the State or the maintenance of public order, or

(iii) the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the community, or

(b) if satisfied with respect to any foreigner that with a view to regulating his continued presence in India or with a view to making arrangements for his expulsion from India, it is necessary so to do, make an order directing that such person be detained.

(2) Any of the following officers, namely:—

(a) district magistrates.

(b) additional district magistrates specially empowered in this behalf by the State Government, may, if satisfied as provided in sub-clauses (ii) and (iii) of clause (a) of sub-section (1), exercise the power conferred by the said sub-section.

(c) Commissioners of Police, wherever they have been appointed.

(3) When any order is made under this section by an officer mentioned in sub-section (2), he shall forthwith report the fact to the State Government to which he is subordinate together with the grounds on which the order has been made and such other particulars as in his opinion have a bearing on the matter, and no such order shall remain in force for more than twelve days after the making thereof unless in the meantime it has been approved by the State Government:

Provided that where under section 8 the grounds of detention are communicated by the authority making the order after five days but not later than fifteen days from the date of detention, this sub-section shall apply subject to the modification that for the words "twelve days", the words "twenty-two days" shall be substituted.

(4) When any order is made or approved by the State Government under this section, the State Government shall, within seven days, report the fact to the Central Government together with the grounds on which the order has been made and such other particulars as in the opinion of the State Government have a bearing on the necessity for the order.

4. Execution of detention orders.—A detention order may be executed at any place in India in the manner provided for the execution of warrants of arrest under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898).

5. Power to regulate place and conditions of detention.—Every person in respect of whom a detention order has been made shall be liable—

- (a) to be detained in such place and under such conditions, including conditions as to maintenance, discipline and punishment for breaches of discipline, as the appropriate Government may, by general or special order, specify; and
- (b) to be removed from one place of detention to another place of detention, whether within the same State or in another State, by order of the appropriate Government:

Provided that no order shall be made by a State Government under clause (b) for the removal of a person from one State to another State except with the consent of the Government of that other State.

6. Detention orders not to be invalid or inoperative on certain grounds.—No detention order shall be invalid or inoperative merely by reason—

- (a) that the person to be detained thereunder is outside the limits of the territorial jurisdiction of the Government or officer making the order, or
- (b) that the place of detention of such person is outside the said limits.

7. Powers in relation to absconding persons.—(1) If the Central Government or the State Government or an officer specified in sub-section (2) of section 3, as the case may be, has reason to believe that a person in respect of whom a detention order has been made has absconded or is concealing himself so that the order cannot be executed, that Government or officer may—

- (a) make a report in writing of the fact to a presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the First Class having jurisdiction in the place where the said person ordinarily resided; and thereupon the provisions of sections 87, 88 and 89 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), shall apply in respect of the said person and his property as if the order directing that he be detained were a warrant issued by the Magistrate;
- (b) by order notified in the Official Gazette direct the said person to appear before such officer, at such place and within such period as may be specified in the order; and if the said person fails to comply with such direction he shall, unless he proves that it was not possible for him to comply therewith and that he had, within the period specified in the order, informed the officer mentioned in the order of the reason which rendered compliance therewith impossible and of his whereabouts, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine or with both.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), every offence under clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall be cognizable.

8. Grounds of order of detention to be disclosed to persons affected by the order.—(1) When a person is detained in pursuance of a detention order, the authority making the order shall, as soon as may be, but ordinarily not later than five years days and in exceptional circumstances and for reasons to be recorded in writing, not later than fifteen days, from the date of detention, communicate to him the grounds on which the order has been made and shall afford him the earliest opportunity of making a representation against the order to the appropriate Government.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall require the authority to disclose facts which it considers to be against the public interest to disclose.

9. Constitution of Advisory Boards.—(1) The Central Government and each State Government shall, whenever necessary, constitute one or more Advisory Boards for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every such Board shall consist of three persons who are, or have been, or are qualified to be appointed as, Judges of a High Court, and such persons shall be appointed by the Central Government or the State Government, as the case may be.

(3) The appropriate Government shall appoint one of the members of the Advisory Board who is, or has been, a Judge of a High Court to be its Chairman, and in the case of a Union territory the appointment to the Advisory Board, of any person who is a Judge of the High Court of a State shall be with the previous approval of the State Government concerned.

10. Reference to Advisory Boards.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, in every case where a detention order has been made under this Act, the appropriate Government shall, within thirty days from the date of detention under the order, place before the Advisory Board constituted by it under section 9 the grounds on which the order has been made and the representation if any, made by the person affected by the order, and in case where the order has been made by an officer, also the report by such officer under sub-section (3) of section 3.

11. Procedure of Advisory Boards.—(1) The Advisory Board shall, after considering the materials placed before it and, after calling for such further information as it may deem necessary from the appropriate Government or from any person called for the purpose through the appropriate Government or from the person concerned, and if, in any particular case, it considers it essential so to do or if the person concerned desires to be heard, after hearing him in person, submit its report to the appropriate Government within ten weeks from the date of detention.

(2) The report of the Advisory Board shall specify in a separate part thereof the opinion of the Advisory Board as to whether or not there is sufficient cause for the detention of the person concerned.

(3) When there is a difference of opinion among the members forming the Advisory Board, the opinion of the majority of such members shall be deemed to be the opinion of the Board.

(4) Nothing in this section shall entitle any person against whom a detention order has been made to appear by any legal practitioner in any matter connected with the reference to the Advisory Board, and the proceedings of the Advisory Board and its report, excepting that part of the report in which the opinion of the Advisory Board is specified, shall be confidential.

12. Action upon the report of Advisory Board.—(1) In any case where the Advisory Board has reported that there is in its opinion sufficient cause for the detention of a person, the appropriate Government may confirm the detention order and continue the detention of the person concerned for such period as it thinks fit.

(2) In any case where the Advisory Board has reported that there is in its opinion no sufficient cause for the detention of the person concerned, the appropriate Government shall revoke the detention order and cause the person to be released forthwith.

13. Maximum period of detention.—The maximum period for which any person may be detained in pursuance of any detention order which has been confirmed under section 12 shall be twelve months from the date of detention:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall affect the power of the appropriate Government to revoke or modify the detention order at any earlier time.

14. Revocation of detention orders.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), a detention order may, at any time, be revoked or modified—

(a) notwithstanding that the order has been made by an officer mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 3, by the State Government to which that officer is subordinate or by the Central Government;

(b) notwithstanding that the order has been made by a State Government, by the Central Government.

(2) The revocation or expiry of a detention order shall not bar the making of a fresh detention order under section 3 against the same person in any case where fresh facts have arisen after the date of revocation or expiry on which the Central Government or a State Government or an officer, as the case may be, is satisfied that such an order should be made.

15. Temporary release of persons detained.—(1) The appropriate Government may, at any time, direct that any person detained in pursuance of a detention order may be released for any specified period either without conditions or upon such conditions specified in the direction as that person accepts, and may, at any time, cancel his release.

(2) In directing the release of any person under sub-section (1), the appropriate Government may require him to enter into a bond with or without sureties for the due observance of the conditions specified in the direction.

(3) Any person released under sub-section (1) shall surrender himself at the time and place, and to the authority, specified in the order directing his release or cancelling his release, as the case may be.

(4) If any person fails with out sufficient cause to surrender himself in the manner specified in sub-section (3), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

(5) If any person released under sub-section (1) fails to fulfil any of the conditions imposed upon him under the said sub-section or in the bond entered into by him, the bond shall be declared to be forfeited and any person bound thereby shall be liable to pay the penalty thereof.

16. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or a State Government, and no suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person, for anything in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act.

17. Duration of detention in certain cases of foreigners.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any foreigner in respect of whom an order of detention has been made under this Act may be detained without obtaining the opinion of the Advisory Board for a period longer than three months, but not exceeding two years from the date of his detention, in any of the following classes of cases or under any of the following circumstances, namely:—

(a) where such foreigner enters or attempts to enter the territory of India or is found therein with arms, ammunition or explosives, or

(b) where such foreigner enters or attempts to enter a notified area or is found therein in contravention of section 3 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1961 (23 of 1961), or

(c) where such foreigner enters or attempts to enter the local limits or is found within the local limits of such area adjoining the borders of India as may be specified in an order made under section 139 of the Border Security Force Act, 1968, (47 of 1968) without a valid travel document, or

(d) where the Central Government has reason to believe that such foreigner commits or is likely to commit any offence under the Official Secrets Act, 1923 (19 of 1923).

(2) In the case of any foreigner to whom sub-section (1) applies, sections 10 to 13 shall have effect subject to the following modifications, namely:—

(a) in section 10, for the words “shall, within thirty days”, the words “may, at any time prior to but in no case later than three months before the expiration of two years” shall be substituted;

(b) in section 11,—

(i) in sub-section (1), for the words “from the date of detention”, the words “from the date on which reference is made to it” shall be substituted;

(ii) in sub-section (2) for the words “the detention of the person concerned”, the words “the continued detention of the person concerned” shall be substituted;

(c) in section 12 for the words “for the detention” in both the places where they occur, the words “for the continued detention” shall be substituted;

(d) in section 13, for the words “twelve months”, the words “three years” shall be substituted.

18. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Maintenance of Internal Security Ordinance, 1971, is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act as if this Act had come into force on the 7th day of May, 1971.

N. D. P. NAMBOODIRIPAD,
Joint Secretary to the Government of India.
